SOMMELIERS WINE AWARDS - IMBIBE UK

<https://www.sommelierwineawards.com/>

POSTPONED TO 2022

The Sommelier Wine Awards is Britain's only on-trade wine competition, we focus entirely on wines aimed at the on-trade.

The Sommelier Wine Awards (SWA) team have made the decision to postpone the competition to 2022. Throughout 2020, businesses and consumers alike have been forced to adapt and the Covid-19 pandemic has led to fundamental changes in behaviour which has seen a big shift in the way that people purchase and consume wine in both the on- and off-trade.

While we are disappointed the competition next year cannot go ahead as planned, we are working with our partners to bring a showcase of wines to Imbibe Live, taking place on 5-6 July 2021 at Olympia London, where the industry will reunite. SWA will once again invite our invaluable team of judges, and wider wine community to taste together – as it should be.

For further information or any help with any queries on the SWA, please email at swa.helpline@reedexpo.co.uk. Alternatively, please call +44 (0) 208 271 2164.

INTERNATIONAL WINE & SPIRIT COMPETITION

<https://www.iwsc.net/>

The aim of the IWSC is to award excellence in international wines and spirits worldwide, encouraging recognition for quality drinks.

What makes IWSC different?

- We work with some of the world's most eminent wine professionals, including Steven Spurrier, Sarah Heller MW, John Hoskins MW, Alex Hunt MW, Dirceu Vianna Junior MW and Mick O'Connell MW.
- We optimise your brand exposure: our experts assess not only the wines within their specialist areas, but also get to see and taste all the wines entered into the IWSC. This gives them an opportunity to discover new wines across all regions.
- We ask you to tell us about your distribution channels. Then, whether you're looking for distribution in the UK, Asia or the US, or exposure in the on-trade, IWSC will ensure your wine is put in front of the relevant decision-makers.
- We link gatekeepers and producers: our experts (sommeliers, on- and off-trade buyers, retailers) are provided with full details of all wines tasted (in any category) that are relevant to their target market.

THE GLOBAL MASTERS 2020 | THE DRINKS BUSINESS

<https://www.theglobalmasters.co.uk/>

A series of blind tasting competitions, drawing in entries from across the world, organized by The Drinks Business. The Global Masters marks a distinct change in the way wine is judged. For the first time, preconceived notions of the importance of location are pushed aside, allowing wines from across the globe to be judged purely on style and price.

Each tasting identifies the best examples of its grape variety, from all around the world and from every price bracket, meaning a Bulgarian wine can be tasted alongside a Burgundian without prejudice or bias.

All Masters competition - whether regional or global - are judged blind, and we have been honoured to have some of the finest palates in the world acting as judges: our panels comprise solely of Masters of Wine, Master Sommeliers and senior buyers.

VINALIES INTERNATIONAL

<https://vinalies-internationales.com/en/>

Every year, the Union of French Œnologists organises one of the most prestigious competitions in the wine world. Over 4 days, the jury members, all experts in sensorial analysis, gather together under the presidency of a French wine specialist, to blind taste wines from all four corners of the world. Last year, over 3,000 bottles were tasted. Boosted by the competition's high renown, the medal-winning bottles are sold throughout the world and are highly appreciated both by distributors and consumers.

Key dates:

- 05 March 2021: Final date for receiving samples at the Walbaum International Reims agency
- 05 March 2021: Closing date for registration
- From 15 to 18 April 2021: Tasting of the samples in Paris
- 19 April 2021: Publication of the results (Internet, press, mobile application, social networks etc.)
